

Curriculum Vitae

---

1. Born in Verona on 24 July 1972.
2. He graduated in Law at the University of Milan on 29 November 1996 with flying colors.
3. He obtained on 28 February 2001 the PhD degree in Philosophy of Law at the Faculty of Law, University of Padova, presenting a thesis on "Solidarity and Law. A Reading Ontophenomenological".
4. He collaborated since 1997 with the Department of Philosophy of Law, University of Rome Tor Vergata, led by Professor Francesco D'Agostino. He participates in several research groups on topics relating to the moral philosophy, legal and policy, professional ethics, the theory of punishment, bioethics and biolaw. He takes part in conferences and seminars, national and international. He's a member of faculty of Ph. D. in History and Theory of European Law.
5. In the first half of 2007 he attended at the Institute of Bioethics at the Catholic University of Sacro Cuore, Rome office, the Course in Bioethics, achieving a result of examination on July 11 on the diploma.
6. On 11 March 2008 he obtained the first place in the process of benchmarking for a post of researcher for the university sector-disciplinary scientific IUS20 at the Department of History and Theory of Law at the Department of Law, University of Rome Tor Vergata.
7. He published reviews, articles, short essays on the philosophy of law, bioethics, biolaw, political philosophy, history of thought. He has published on various magazines operating in the area of philosophy of law, political philosophy, bioethics and biolaw, such as the "Rivista Internazionale di Filosofia del Diritto", "Rivista di Filosofia del Diritto", "Diritto di famiglia e delle persone", "Rivista Italiana di Medicina Legale", "Paradoxa", "L'Arco di Giano", "Teoria del Diritto e dello Stato", "Archivio Giuridico", "Iustitia", "Medic", "Persona y Derecho", "Ars Juris", "Dikaion", "Jus Humani", "Prudentia Juris". He is the author of the following books: "L'emergenza deontologica", Rome, 2007; "Deontologia. Filosofia del lavoro professionale", Giappichelli, Torino, 2010; "Biodiritto. Fragilità e giustizia", Giappichelli, Torino, 2012; "Diritto secolare. Religione e sfera pubblica, oggi", Aracne, Roma, 2012.
8. He collaborated since 1998 with the Department of Anthropology and Ethics (now Institute of Philosophy of Action Science and Technology - FAST) of University Campus Biomedico of Rome, teaching Introduction to Bioethics and Forensic Medicine for students of the Faculty of Medicine. He's a member of faculty of Ph. D. in Bioethics.
9. He worked from 2008 to 2011 for teaching and assistance to students in relation to the Bioethics course taught by Prof. Francesco D'Agostino, Faculty of Political Science University "LUISS Guido Carli" of Rome.

10. Added Professor of Philosophy of Law at the School Cadet Officers of the Carabinieri in Rome, and Assistant Professor (2013-2017) at the School Brigadier and Marshals of the Carabinieri, located in Velletri (Rome), then in Florence.

11. He has participated as a speaker at various international conferences in Italy, Spain (Madrid, Valencia, Alicante), United States (Washington DC), México (México City), Perú (Lima, Trujillo, Chiclayo, Piura), Colombia (Bogotá), Chile (Santiago), Argentina (Buenos Aires), Portugal (Lisbona, Coimbra).

12. Since the academic year 2012/2013 is the scientific coordinator of the PhD program in medical Bioethics and Bio-law promoted jointly by the Faculty of Medicine and the Department of Law, University of Rome "Tor Vergata".

13. Since autumn 2013 he's member (as expert of bioethics) in the Ethics Committee of the "Tor Vergata" University Hospital in Rome. It is confirmed in the post for the next three years.

14. Since the academic year 2013/2014 is Adjunct Professor of Philosophy of Law at the Department of Law of the University Lumsa, home to Palermo.

Rome, January 2018, 28.