SUMMER AND WINTER SCHOOLS

- “Intensive Online Course on Power Analysis”, 13-16 Dec 2023. The course covered the topic of statistical power analysis with demonstrations of the main statistical tests and power analysis through simulation with the statistical software R. Instructors: Marco Perugini, Marcello Gallucci, & Giulio Costantini.
- “Advanced Course on using Mplus”, 9-13 Jul 2018 Utrecht University (Utrecht, The Netherlands): Theoretical foundations and practical skills for using advanced longitudinal SEM with Mplus. Key topics: latent growth models; advanced longitudinal models; dynamic structural equation modeling (DSEM); longitudinal models with categorical variables. Instructors: Ellen Hamaker, Mariëlle Zondervan-Zwijnenburg, & Caspar van Lissa.
- “Dyadic Data Analysis Using Multilevel Modeling with R”, 19-23 Jun 2017 University of Connecticut (Storrs, CT, USA): Key topics: Moderation, mediation, and longitudinal analysis of dyadic data. Instructors: David A. Kenny & Randi Garcia.
- “Multilevel Modeling with Organizational Psychology Focus”, 11-14 Sep 2017 Università della Campania “Luigi Vanvitelli” (Caserta, Italy). Multilevel modeling using SPSS and Mplus statistical software. Instructor: Guido Alessandri.
- “Introduzione ai modelli multilevel nella ricerca organizzativa”, 19-20 Jan 2017 Università degli Studi di Trento (Rovereto, Italy). The course offered a theoretical introduction to multilevel models in organizational research, along with the acquisition of the practical skills necessary to conduct such analysis using SPSS statistical software. Instructor: Guido Alessandri.
- “Mediazione e moderazione: Applicazione ai modelli lineari generali, misti e generalizzati”, 05-10 Sep 2016 (Bertinoro, Italy). The course provided the theoretical foundations and practical skills to conduct mediation and moderation analyses applied to general linear models, mixed models, and generalized models using the statistical software R. Instructors: Marcello Gallucci & Matteo Fogianini.
